

Our wine list is a moment in time; a continual evolution of the seasons that become the vintages, which in turn, becomes a little celebration of the producer's hard work.

We have found more value, variation and interest working with growers who care about the way they farm. They tend to be small production family concerns.

Some of these are organic, some bio-dynamic and some 'natural', those with minimal intervention, however, it's still more about what's in the bottle than its provenance.

Each season the list will change and will feature different regions and different producers by the glass and bottle.

'EXCELLENCE, WITH PASSION'

In 1985, Alain Thiénot launched his eponymous Champagne House. Using well-established contacts with growers to the best of his ability, he was able to guarantee an extraordinary supply of grapes. He favours quality over quantity, creativity over traditionalism. Today, Champagne Thiénot is in the capable hands of Stanislas and Garance, the company's leaders and ambassadors. Alain Thiénot, ever present at their side, continues to share his knowledge and secrets.

'One passion: wine. One imperative: excellence' - Alain Thiénot
